

Albertina Almeida participated in a panel discussion on “Civil Society Responses to COVID Management: Case of Goa,” organized by the Department of Political Science, Goa University, on 26 November 2020. See the flier below:

Albertina Almeida: Panel Discussion: “Civil Society Responses to COVID Management: Case of Goa”

Department of Political Science
Goa University
On the occasion of

71th Anniversary Year of the Indian Constitution
Invites you to the following online events
On 26/11/2020
Meeting Link meet.google.com/yrm-jfay-gpp
10.30. A.M.

Special Lecture on “Fundamental Duties and Active Citizen Engagement”

By Advocate Manish Mohan
Standing Counsel in Delhi High Court, Government of India

Advocate Manish Mohan has been practicing in the Supreme Court of India, Delhi High Court and other courts for the last twenty five years where he has appeared on matters relating to Constitutional, Criminal, Taxation, Arbitration, Labour and Service, Election and other Civil matters. He has also represented the states of Bihar, Jharkhand, Chattisgarh, Haryana, Meghalaya and Uttaranchal in the Supreme Court. He has also been elected to the Executive Committee of the Supreme Court Bar Association for two terms.

Advocate Mohan is also a prolific author and has co-authored more than a dozen law books on civil and criminal procedures and is at present working on a commentary on Prevention of Money Laundering Act. He has also been a guest faculty at various Law Schools, Judicial Academies and Universities in India.

The lecture shall be followed by a brief question and answer session.

n: “Civil Society Responses to D Management: Case of Goa”

12.00 P.M.
Reading of the Preamble to the Constitution of India

12.05 P.M.

Panel Discussion on

Civil Society Response to COVID Management: Case of Goa

Panelists include eminent members of civil society in Goa who were at the forefront of people's response to COVID management following the lockdown.

Panelists

Ms. Nandita Haksar, eminent human rights lawyer, worked extensively for the migrants from North East in Goa during COVID.

Dr Albertina Almeida, noted human rights lawyer, teacher and activist, coordinated the COVID People's Response Group during the Pandemic

Ms. Evita Rodrigues, Graduate student of St. Stephens College, New Delhi, based in Goa, coordinated extensive relief efforts in Delhi and Goa during COVID with student outreach.

2.00 P.M.

Elocution Contest between UG Colleges

Theme: 'Revisiting Fundamental Duties in the COVID World.'

5 to 7 minutes for each speaker

4.00 P.M.

Conclusion and Vote of Thanks

Prof. Rahul Tripathi

Head Dept of Political Science, Goa University
State Nodal Person for 70th Anniversary Celebrations of the Indian Constitution in HEIs.

Share this...

